Alex is it possible to get one of the DPS cars in the motorcade to follow along with General Paxton while he's in the guest van? Absolutely. Does he have his own vehicle (driven by detail) or will he hop in a guest van?

Great, thanks! Last question: Will he ride over with the motorcade? I assume with street closures for POTUS it might be tricky to get to Houston without being in the motorcade!

Correct. And the AG is confirmed to attend the political event. When we arrive, he can mix and mingle during the click line & roundtable and then be on hand for the general remarks.

Perfect, this will get our team what they need to plan General Paxton's travel. So—assuming you confirmed that he is invited to attend the political event—he will join for both the greeting/signing and the evening event. Thanks again.

Alex, would you be able to give us approximate times for movement tomorrow? General Paxton will be at Ellington by 2:15 to greet POTUS and ride over to the signing event. And I know you mentioned that the signing event would likely end by 4:45. Would General Paxton then ride over to the later events in the motorcade? And what time are those events scheduled to end? Thanks again for the information.

Alex, I'm writing to confirm that General Paxton will be able to attend the EO-signing in Crosby on Wednesday (along with the event afterward hosted by others). If you could send along an email with your security/logistics folks, I will copy in people on our side too. Thanks a lot!
